U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY PROPERTY CERTIFICATE

1	Contractor	3. Contract No.
١.	Contractor	S. Contract No.
0	Addroop
2.	Address
4.	Item I or II as applicable:
	I. There was no residual Government-owned property o contract. Therefore, this constitutes a negative reply to the Government request for a final inventory of residual Government-owned property on the subject contract.
	Signature and Title	Date
	3
	I. A final inventory of residual GOVERNMENT-OWNED PROPERTY ONLY is enclosed for the category (or categories) checked:
	Equipment	Materials and Supplies
	Except for the category (or categories) checked above, no other residual Government-owned property of any description remains on this contract, at its completion:
	Signature and Title	Date
	Signature and Title	Dale
	All Government-owned property (whether acquired with contract funds or Government furnished) is required to be disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this
	disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of su relating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession
	disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of su	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession
	disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of su relating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included.	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession
	disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of su relating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession
	disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of su relating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included. The inventory should be in two (2) parts:	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession n contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor,
	disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of su relating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included.	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession n contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor,
	 disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of su relating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included. The inventory should be in two (2) parts: (a) Equipment - Items having a value of >$5000 and have 	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession in contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor, ing a life expectancy of two (2) or more years.
	 disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of su relating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included. The inventory should be in two (2) parts: (a) Equipment - Items having a value of >$5000 and hav (b) Noncapital Equipment - Minor equipment <$5000, maging 	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession n contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor,
	 disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of su relating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included. The inventory should be in two (2) parts: (a) Equipment - Items having a value of >$5000 and have 	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession in contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor, ing a life expectancy of two (2) or more years.
	 disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of su relating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included. The inventory should be in two (2) parts: (a) Equipment - Items having a value of >$5000 and hav (b) Noncapital Equipment - Minor equipment <$5000, maging 	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession in contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor, ing a life expectancy of two (2) or more years.
	 disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of surrelating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included. The inventory should be in two (2) parts: (a) Equipment - Items having a value of >$5000 and have (b) Noncapital Equipment - Minor equipment <$5000, may other special materials (such as platinum), etc. The inventory should show for each item the following: 	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession in contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor, ing a life expectancy of two (2) or more years.
	 disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of surrelating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included. The inventory should be in two (2) parts: (a) Equipment - Items having a value of >$5000 and have (b) Noncapital Equipment - Minor equipment <$5000, may other special materials (such as platinum), etc. The inventory should show for each item the following: Complete description. 	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession in contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor, ing a life expectancy of two (2) or more years.
	 disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of surrelating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included. The inventory should be in two (2) parts: (a) Equipment - Items having a value of >$5000 and have (b) Noncapital Equipment - Minor equipment <$5000, may other special materials (such as platinum), etc. The inventory should show for each item the following: Complete description. Tag numbers for capital equipment. 	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession in contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor, ing a life expectancy of two (2) or more years.
	 disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of surrelating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included. The inventory should be in two (2) parts: (a) Equipment - Items having a value of >$5000 and have (b) Noncapital Equipment - Minor equipment <$5000, may other special materials (such as platinum), etc. The inventory should show for each item the following: Complete description. Tag numbers for capital equipment. Unit cost. 	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession in contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor, ing a life expectancy of two (2) or more years.
	 disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of su relating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included. The inventory should be in two (2) parts: (a) Equipment - Items having a value of >$5000 and have (b) Noncapital Equipment - Minor equipment <$5000, may other special materials (such as platinum), etc. The inventory should show for each item the following: Complete description. Tag numbers for capital equipment. Unit cost. Condition and date acquired. 	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession in contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor, ing a life expectancy of two (2) or more years.
	 disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of surrelating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included. The inventory should be in two (2) parts: (a) Equipment - Items having a value of >$5000 and have (b) Noncapital Equipment - Minor equipment <$5000, may other special materials (such as platinum), etc. The inventory should show for each item the following: Complete description. Tag numbers for capital equipment. Unit cost. 	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession in contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor, ing a life expectancy of two (2) or more years.
	 disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of su relating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included. The inventory should be in two (2) parts: (a) Equipment - Items having a value of >$5000 and hav (b) Noncapital Equipment - Minor equipment <$5000, ma other special materials (such as platinum), etc. The inventory should show for each item the following: Complete description. Tag numbers for capital equipment. Unit cost. Condition and date acquired. Quantity or weights for other special materials. 	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession in contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor, ing a life expectancy of two (2) or more years. aterials and supplies, residuals from production, scrap, and
	 disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of su relating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included. The inventory should be in two (2) parts: (a) Equipment - Items having a value of >$5000 and have (b) Noncapital Equipment - Minor equipment <$5000, may other special materials (such as platinum), etc. The inventory should show for each item the following: Complete description. Tag numbers for capital equipment. Unit cost. Condition and date acquired. 	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession in contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor, ing a life expectancy of two (2) or more years. aterials and supplies, residuals from production, scrap, and
	 disposed of at the completion of this contract. Since this required that named contractor furnish an inventory of su relating to this contract. Items of equipment acquired wit should not be included. The inventory should be in two (2) parts: (a) Equipment - Items having a value of >$5000 and hav (b) Noncapital Equipment - Minor equipment <$5000, may other special materials (such as platinum), etc. The inventory should show for each item the following: Complete description. Tag numbers for capital equipment. Unit cost. Condition and date acquired. Quantity or weights for other special materials. 	agreement is in the process of being closed out, it is ch residual Government-owned property in its possession in contract funds, title to which is vested in the Contractor, ing a life expectancy of two (2) or more years. aterials and supplies, residuals from production, scrap, and