

Jason has served as a workplace conflict neutral and instructional designer at DOE since 2021. Prior to his federal service, Jason worked as a civil litigator for 13 years, including operating a solo practice for the majority of that time. Jason also previously served as a mediator for the Human Rights/Fair Housing Commission of Sacramento County, California. Between his private practice and his work as a mediator, Jason has participated in over one thousand mediations. Jason is admitted to practice law in California and the District of Columbia and received his Juris Doctorate at McGeorge School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts in Creative Writing at the University of California, Santa Cruz. We at the ADR Office know Jason as a cat attendant, a crafter, a storyteller, and a self-described "inveterate geek."
